Dear Mother

I will write you a few words to you to day. I should think that Ada might have written before here. I have been here two weeks and have not heard from home but one It is a perfect jam here to day. They say there are over sixty thousand people strangers of men in town to day over town around they expect there will be over one hundred thousand. There are excursions from all over coming in there has been a column four abreast passing through the pass where Garfield has since nine o'clock this morning and will continue all night I expect. It is perfectly grand never saw anything to equal it.

I have in a good opportunity to see all the big boys. For there was never so many of the big men assembled in one
