

If you was at Bradford I could get transportation to go home recuring but as it is I dont know how to obtain it yet

P. M. Fuller & C. C. Crissman left for home yesterday to be absent for 8 days I think after about two weeks I can get an unlimited furlough by pulling the right string

I want you to write after but wait so long again. If I only could have a good quiet place by myself to write so that I could pour out the feelings of my heart I would like it but here it is all confusion & noise in and out this one looking over your shoulder & that one talking that impossible to write at all give my love to your respected Mother and believe me your in love Nephew

I wrote you last evening but left it open until this welcome letter was gladly received you cannot tell how much good you I was very glad to learn that you was well & enjoying your self as well as could be expected under the circumstances

I want to see you and add very much I'll add that I shall send her my Photograph when I get some money

I am sorry to say that I cannot send you the $12.00 to day but will as soon as I draw some money which I cannot tell when it may happen I find that all things
