

And now for the wedding ^{of Rachel} Married at the christian ^{school} house on Sunday June the 18th by the Rev.
 Mr. Phelps Mrs. Benjamin Wheat to Miss Elizabeth Mather both of Ellington. (Wheat headed early)

Also on the 20th instant by the Rev. William Wither at the residence of his mother Mrs.
 Franklin Gubler to Miss Martha Return of the same place. Mades will marry. It is quarterly meeting to day there was quite a turnout and I suppose if the truth was known they thought more of seeing the De. brides than of hearing what the Deacons said ^{perhaps} judge other folks by myself

There are great times here now picking for the fourth the Lemplars are going to have a pickin in the grove there other luges meets with us Gates is going to have a dance and there is a going to be a great fireworks in the evening

Mrs Baldwin Gule
 Mary and Jane Brown has been to the falls I spert they have seen great things but I wont please them well enough to asking about it. (rather father)

I am now alone Mather and Thomas has gone over in the bark lot to see the little colt Mather has gone to mills and all the live thing I can see is my old white cow chewing her end you will think ^{this} quite a variety in this letter speaking of going to the falls cows weddings &c but no matter there is nothing like getting a letter from an old friend withes good or bad Diantha is well I stayed with her last fridy night. Mrs.
