

times are getting more easy and not so much to do through the blessings of a kind and heavenly Father we are all well as usual and comfortably circumstanced in life

The weather here of late has been delightful indeed though part of the time rather warm crop of all kinds from present indications

Uncle James Burt is doing business here in the wool line He has been to our house to dine several times his family are still in Oregon. My expects to go and see them soon I think more of him than I used to perhaps by being better acquainted with him. Samuel and family are
