Dear Grandson,

I recieved your, very kind letter, with much pleasure. I rejoice to see, that my Grandchildren sometimes think of me; I wish I could see you; I suppose your eyes, sparkle, as bright, as ever.
I can imagin, how you are flying about, every night and morning, doing your choors.
I suppose you will have to hury a little more now you go to school. I think you are a very nice writer, for a small boy. you have improved very much, since you were here.
