Obituary

By the dispensation of Divine Providence these truly afflicted parents have been bereaved of two lovely & promising daughters; and the Brother who hath held the rod, be graciously placed underneath them, to sustain them in this time of great trial. And again the death angel has closed to enter our little band of students; link by link of the chain that has before bound us in unbroken union.
He is fast ascending. Yes, he came, and went, and came again, and in his coming, hath borne away two of the brightest jewels of earth for which the portals of Heaven. They too, were not born in vain. They had opened to the blossoms, it was nipped by the frost to leeching forward to the future, full of bright hopes & anticipations they fancied, they saw much laid up in store for them. But alas! the future is not ours to know. Although they have been called to a premature grave, they is mourned not, yet their departure has left an aching void in many hearts, hearts, - And oh! dear schoolmates - may you on the same blessed occasion, let no one live that we, like them, when called, can say I'm going home to a habitation of rest -
