

March the 18th 50

May happiness be ever thine
And peace thy steps attend
Except this token of respect
From one that is your friend

Think not tho distant that thou art
Thou canst forgotten be
While memory lives within my heart
I will remember thee

All golden thoughts all wealth of days
Truth, Friendship Love surround you
So may you smile till life be closed,
And angels hands have crowned you

Where ere you go where ere you stray
May you with peace be blest
And every joy attend your ways
Is Ruby's hearts request

Ruby L Baenster